

Jazz at bohemia

Mubu and Birmingham Jazz are proud to present a new monthly session at Bohemia Cafe Bistro in Selly Oak

Sara Colman - solo
Friday 3rd September

Lluis Mather/
Matt Ratcliffe
Friday 1st October

Steve Tromans/
Aaron Diaz
Friday 5th November

25 pounds
live music
& a 3 course meal
7.30pm onwards
advance booking essential book by phone 0121 471 2713
book online eatbohemia.co.uk bohemia is a modern british restaurant situated in birmingham's buzzing selly oak area. open almost all day, you can pop in for a lunch, fair trade coffee and light bites or enjoy the more formal air that evenings provide at this smart and contemporary establishment. head chef ross has created a rather exciting modern british menu which changes monthly meaning that you'll have a whole new array of choices upon a return visit. you might enjoy dishes such as herb sausage, black pudding and duck egg terrine with plum tomato chutney, poached cod fillet with garlic, chilli and coriander butter, slow cooked rib of beef with chorizo dauphinoise potatoes and pimm's and lemonade jelly with homemade strawberry clotted cream ice cream.

www.eatbohemia.co.uk

www.wearmubu.com

BIRMINGHAM JAZZ

www.birminghamjazz.co.uk

Sara Colman

Friday 3rd Sept

SARA COLMAN started out on piano and was writing songs in her teens even before she studied music at the Birmingham Conservatoire. Her debut solo album "Spellbound" was original material and her writing and arranging skills have led to commissions for artists such as Black Voices. Sara was a finalist in the BBC Radio 2 "Sold on Song" songwriting competition. Her formidable talent is just emerging on the national scene and she was among the elite group of artists selected for the Jerwood series of Rising Star concerts at the Cheltenham Jazz Festival.

www.saracolman.com

Jazz at Bohemia

First Friday of Every month

Lluis Mather / Matt Ratcliffe

Friday 1st Oct

Lluis Mather is a Birmingham based saxophonist in his fourth and final year studying at the highly respected Birmingham Conservatoire. Originally from near Leicester, Lluis was raised through the Leicester Arts big bands, and was taught by saxophonists Dave Graham and Pete Lloyd. In 2004 he joined the internationally renowned Midland Youth Jazz Orchestra (unbeaten in the BBC big band competition). In this band he quickly matured, learning from the experience of playing alongside well respected guest artists (Dave O'Higgins, Henry Litherer, Stan Sultzmnn, Jacqui Dankworth to name but a few) <http://www.lluismather.co.uk>

Steve Tromans / Aaron Diaz

Friday 5th Nov

Composer-pianist-arranger-researcher Steve Tromans graduated from Birmingham Conservatoire in 1997 with first class honours. His composition tutor was the then composer-in-residence, John Mayer, pioneer of World Jazz with his double quintet with saxophonist Joe Harriott, Indo-Jazz Fusions. <http://www.steve-tromans.co.uk>

Aaron Diaz is a Trumpeter, Improviser and Composer based in Birmingham. Growing up on the hills of Dartmoor he moved to the city in 2004 to attend Birmingham Conservatoire, where he studied trumpet and composition with such luminary musicians as Dave Holland, Mike Gibbs, Hans Koller and Neil Yates. Since graduating in 2008 Aaron has leapt into a career that spans both genre and setting. <http://www.cobwebcollective.com/aarondiaz.co.uk>

Book Online

www.eatbohemia.co.uk

Book by phone

0121 471 2713